The Twice-a-Week Sun is an eight-page, forty-column paper, published every Monday and Thursday, and contains all the news of the week, local, state and general, and will be mailed, postage free, to any part of the United States or Canada, for $1.00 a year—in advance.

All advertising bills become due after first appearance of advertisement, unless otherwise stipulated in contract. Parties not known to us will be required to pay for advertising in advance. Address, THE DAILY SUN, GAINESVILLE, FLA.

A man who never made a good trade when a boy seldom grows up to making good bargains.

Hon. Park Trammell has decided to not enter the lists at the present time for Congressional honors.

The operators are willing to raise the wages of the coal miners so long as they can raise the price of coal.

The man who always walks on the sunny side of the street expects to leave his creditors in the shade.

And now "Our Bob" is bobbing up serenely as "an available candidate" for Governor. He has always been a popular favorite.

There is one great obstacle in the way of a Southern man being able to reach the White House—they would rather be right than be President.

Perhaps Mrs. Stetson thinks that if she can't forgive the trustees of the University for what they have done, she might forget them if they would resign.

The serial published in The Jasper News regarding the paying of Everglade taxes in Miami is emphatically denied by the tax collector of Dade county as a fabrication from start to finish.

From all reports that come from Russia regarding the mix-up in the coming election, one would think they had been living all their lives in a land where they had exercised the right of franchise.

There are many opportunities in Florida. If some man would only offer for sale "ready-to-wear" platforms at the present time he could find a ready sale for them to the politicians of the State.

It all depends on who takes the money, whether it is stealing according to Gee Rome. A man who lifts a nickel to buy bread for his starving children is a thief. To help elect a President with other people's money is a bit of diplomacy, we expect.

The April number of The Cosmopolitan gives the second chapter of "The Treason of the Senate," and every man who thinks should read these very able papers by David Graham Phillips, which are written with great care as to the utmost truthfulness of every statement made.

The Philadelphia Inquirer has taken the pains to investigate the affairs along the East Coast railroad, where the construction gang is at work, and finds it about as good as any railroad camp. Some of the fellows who came down from Philadelphia thought they were going to have Sunday dinner at the Royal Palm.

Mayor McCarthy of Richmond, Va., never thought he would spring into such prominence when he said, "I recognize but two flags," and the fellows who took him to task would no doubt have thought he was all right if, instead, he had exclaimed, "Erin go bragh." He was working for a re-nomination, perhaps.

NO HOPE FOR RELIEF.

Governor Cummins of Iowa, in his reply to Senator Elkins' criticism of speech to the voters of Iowa on his examination before the Senate committee, tells the eminent West Virginian Senator what other people have known for a long time. He says:

"The truth is, Senator, that you have fairly established the reputation of standing for the railroads in the United States Senate. It is most unfortunate that any Senator should acquire such a reputation among the people of the country. It is in the highest degree important that the body of which you are a member shall enjoy the fullest public confidence. The gravest problems which confront us are those which relate to the regulation and restriction of corporate power. These problems will not be successfully solved by those whose lives have been so molded by corporate thought and corporate influence that they instinctively turn to corporate officers and managers for information and guidance. It is with profound regret that I have condemned your course, but my regret disappears and another feeling takes its place when I observe that you are not only persisting in your indefensible attitude, but are endeavoring to reach over a thousand miles of space and advise the Republican voters of Iowa how to select a Governor. The burden is too heavy for you; you cannot lift it. The task is too great for you; you cannot accomplish it."

With such men as Elkins to guard the affairs of the people, what can be expected to be done for their benefit, however, since the Executive may be in the matter?

WILL BE A STATE ISSUE.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says that it must be apparent to all observers that there is to be a heated and determined contest in the next Legislature as to the Buckman educational law. Those opposed to its provisions and those favoring it are now at work, and the clash will come at the next session in Tallahassee. The work accomplished under that law will doubtless all be upset and nullified if one faction can elect its candidates. It will be equally so with the other faction to retain the law and encourage the progress of carrying into effect its provisions.

It is to be regretted that there is such strife apparent over the new law, and that all contention cannot be amicably adjusted without making a State issue of it. The courts so far have sustained the validity of the law, thus giving the advocates of it material advantage. Instead of appeasing the opposition thereto, it seems the decisions have spurred that faction to greater effort, and they may yet have their revenge by electing members sufficient to repeal the law.

The new law's enforcement, for the two years it has been in operation, and the result, will be points of interest to the tax-payers and those interested in State education. The friends of the law assert it will save thousands of dollars heretofore frittered away on State colleges and now spent on county schools to good effect. The question is by no means a local one, but a State issue.

Editor McKenzie of The Palatka Times-Herald is a candidate for the Legislature from Putnam county. The people of Putnam will find in Mr. McKenzie a man who will make them an able representative if he is chosen by them, as he has been a resident of the city of Palatka for many years and knows the needs of that county.

Russell Sage says: "I think, had I my life to live over again, I would make charity a life study." Perhaps in a lifetime he might be made to yield a few dollars to charity, if he had applied himself diligently. But he possibly might have gotten behind in his studies even then.

How's This?

The appearance of a number of Chinese in our city need not cause any fear, as they are only in our midst on peaceful pursuits. We must expect to see foreigners in our cities if we keep up with the procession in free America, and as we grow the more cosmopolitan our population will be. The only wonder is that we don't have more foreigners in Florida, for there is no land on which the sun shines that surpasses it as a place to make a home.

Stetson University will get a Carnegie library, although Mr. Carnegie is opposed to giving to institutions when the immediate control is exercised through a denominational convention or its boards.

What is the matter with the reporters on the daily press? They don't seem to get any of the speeches correct. Possibly some of the speakers don't talk as they think.

Fourteen schools of Manatee county have made 80 per cent under chapter 5381 of the school law, securing two months' school in addition to the regular term.

D. A. G. Flower, who has a grove near Alva, refused $15,000 for his grapefruit crop. He sold it by the box at a fancy price.

The Jackson county farmers are to organize an association. This is the proper thing to do.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs will meet at Tampa, April 4th.

A $50,000 concrete plant is contemplated at Tampa.

BAD BLOOD

"I had trouble with my bowels which made my blood impure. My face was covered with pimples which no external remedy could remove. I tried your Cascarets and great was my joy when the pimples disappeared after a month's steady use. I have recommended them to all my friends and quite a few have found relief."
